WAKE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

The Wake Baptist Association met with the St. Matthews Baptist Church, August 16, 1905.

The Moderator, Rev. J. J. Worlds, called the house to order at 11 o'clock. Rev. C. H. Williamson and Rev. H. T. Cook conducted the devotional exercises.

"We come, O Lord, before thy throne," etc., was sung.

Rev. C. H. Williamson read the second chapter of Phillipians.

Prayer was offered by Rev. H. Cook.

"I love thy kingdom, Lord," was sung.

Rev. H. Pair, the pastor of St. Matthews Church, then came forward and delivered an address of hearty welcome.

Bro. Pair said: It gives me great pleasure to welcome you here. I have attended nearly all the annual sessions of this Association since its organization. I take pleasure in welcoming you here as a religious body on account of the work you have accomplished and the work you have in view—the spread of the gospel of Christ.

The address was responded to by Bro. I. C. Jeffreys. He said: I am glad to respond to the hearty address of welcome to which you have just listened. We as Baptist people represent great principles, and these principles we wish to impress upon you during our stay among you.

The Moderator then read his annual address, which was full of sound advice. The Moderator called attention to the importance of adhering to the great doctrines of the Baptist church.

He called attention also to the duties and relation of Baptist churches. Each church, said he, must labor to build up other churches; each church must respect the acts of sister churches; all churches must unite in sending the gospel to all nations and peoples.

Our churches must hold up a high standard of character, and thus be an example for the world.

On account of the absence of Rev. W. A. Jones, the introductory sermon was postponed till the afternoon.

The delegates were enrolled.

Rev. H. Pair and deacons of St. Matthews church were appointed a committee on hours of meetings, etc.

On motion, the Sunday school work was represented by Dr. S. N. Vass, the District Secretary of the American Baptist Society. Dr. Vass spoke of the early history of the work in the State, and how this work began. He also spoke of one particular feature of the State Convention—the education of our young women.

Our Sunday schools are to teach the great doctrine of the Baptist church; our boys and girls must be trained in these doctrines, or we cannot hold them in our churches.

The Committee on Hours of Meeting, etc., made their report as follows:

Meet at 9:30; adjourn 12:30. Meet at 1:30 p. m.; adjourn at 4:30 p. m. Meet at 7:30; adjourn at pleasure.

Rev. W. T. Coleman lifted a collection for the Sunday school work, $3.98.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Met at 2:15. Rev. J. C. Love and Bro. Robert Fuquay conducted the devotional exercises.

The following committees were appointed:

Finance—Bros. W. H. Ray, Robert Emory, J. W. Ligon, I. W. Holden.

Resolutions—Bros. C. H. Williamson, W. T. Coleman, A. Whitted, I. C. Jeffreys, Robert Fuquay.

Reception of New Churches—Bros. R. H. Thomas, H. Pair, F. T. Horton, J. P. Williams, C. P. Harris.

The hour having arrived for the introductory sermon, the Moderator introduced Rev. W. A. Jones, who had been appointed to preach the sermon.

Bro. Jones was assisted by Bro. I. C. Jeffreys, who announced the opening hymn, 408. Scripture lesson, Acts, chapter xx. Rev. E. Rice led in prayer.

Bro. Jones announced as a text Acts 20:24. He gave a brief history of the life of Paul; Paul's opposition to the religion of Christ; Paul's conversion; His consecrated life to the cause of the Christian religion. The secret of Paul's power was his communion with God; he was a man of prayer. This is the secret of the Christian's power to-day. The church needs to get more in touch with God to withstand opposition and fill her mission. Paul took a stand for God and allowed nothing to move him. This is religion—taking a stand for God.

This Association, organized thirty-nine years ago, has stood for God; for His doctrine; for His church; to advance His kingdom; for a converted brotherhood; a pure church, an educated ministry; the education of all the people; for missions, home and abroad; for pure homes. Preachers must not be ashamed of the gospel. Preach Baptist doctrine. Don't try to please everybody. Stay in your own field and work your own farm. One great need of our churches is Baptist preachers.

Dr. Whitted led in prayer.

The topic, "Our Duty to Assist Weak Churches," was discussed by Rev. W. T. Coleman. There must be co-operation in our church work. The strong must help the weak. This is Home Mission work. To help the weak church means more than giving money. He should send strong men to the weak churches to teach the people how to help themselves. The people need instruction.

Bro. I. W. Holden spoke on the same subject. He compared the weak church to a young plant. It must be nurtured till it becomes self-sustaining. Send to these young churches the strongest men. "Don't send to me," said Bro. Holden, "a preacher whom you will not hear yourself."

Bro. Thomas Ellis said: "Our weak churches must be helped in order that they may be able to defend themselves." A collection for weak churches was taken—$3.99.

The following were appointed a Committee on Officers:

Bros. M. F. Jones, Joseph High, A. T. Price, A. J. Chavis, I. C. Jeffreys, John Ligon.

Committee on licensed ministers—Dr. G. W. Perry, Rev. W. T. Coleman, Rev. C. H. Williamson.

Committee on Place—Andrew Young, Rev. N. W. Watkins, C. D. Jones, S. C. Harris, S. M. Mitchell, J. M. Hunt, John Ligon, J. H. Cook, S. J. Taylor.

WEDNESDAY—NIGHT SESSION.

At 8 o'clock Rev. J. J. Worlds, Moderator, called the Association to order, with Rev. M. F. Jones, who preached the missionary sermon, and Rev. T. Coleman, assistant, in the pulpit. Rev. Coleman lined No. 637, Baptist Hymn Book, "I love Thy Kingdom, Lord," etc., which was sung by the congregation.

Scripture lesson, Mark 16th chapter, was read by Rev. Coleman, and fervent prayer was offered by Rev. A. T. Price.

No. 800, in the Baptist Hymn Book, "Go preach my Gospel, saith the Lord," etc., was lined and sung.

The Moderator, Rev. J. J. Worlds, then introduced Rev. M. F. Jones, who came forward and, from Matt. 28th chapter 18th and 19th verses, preached a most excellent missionary sermon. Subject, "The Missionary Charta." Outline: 1st. The command—

(a) Go teach.

(b) What must I teach?

(c) Those to be taught; or who are to be taught?

2d. The argument—

(a) This is the church's picture.

(b) The church's right.

(c) The church's might.

The sermon was well prepared and delivered and filled with thought and spirit.

The congregation sang, "When My Life's Work is Ended," etc. Rev. D. J. Avery, our Eastern missionary, with a fervent spirit offered prayer.

Having made remarks, the Moderator requested Rev. D. J. Avery to lift the collection for Home Missions.

The following persons gave 25 cents each: Revs. C. H. Williamson, J. D. Avery, J. J. Worlds, M. F. Jones, A. Whitted, H. Pair, W. T. Coleman, W. A. Jones; Brethren J. N. Perry, R. P. Emery, R. S. The following points were presented and impressed:

1. Family prayer must be daily held in the home.

2. Children must be taught the Bible.

3. Children must be taught obedience in the home.

"Some Facts from the Foreign Field" were presented by N. F. Roberts.

Rev. A. B. Vincent spoke on the subject of Foreign Missions.

The Committee on New Churches made their report.

"What part each church should take in the support of Foreign Missions" was discussed by Rev. J. W. Ligon.

Bro. Ligon defined the church—

1. The work of spreading the gospel is given to the church.

2. The church has covenanted to do this work.

How the church is to do this work—

1. By sending men.

2. By sending money.

3. The church should do some definite part of mission work. Some churches can support a young man preparing for the foreign field. Some can support a missionary. Some can support a Sunday School on the foreign field.

Dr. J. A. Whitted lifted a collection for the Foreign Mission work. The following gave 25 cents each: Dr. J. A. Whitted, Rev. J. J. Worlds, Rev. A. B. Vincent, Dr. S. N. Vass, Rev. J. W. Ligon, Rev. THURSDAY EVENING'S SESSION.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Revs. E. Rice and E. C. Massenburg. Hymn 640, in Baptist Hymn Book, "Blessed be the tie that binds," etc., was sung. Prov., 8th chapter, was read. Prayer by Rev. Thos. Land. Second hymn, 508. Afterward Miss Sarah C. Johnson, representative of the Parents' Conference, was presented to the Association. Miss Johnson highly entertained us for fifteen minutes. She spoke feelingly upon the great work of the Parents' Conference. She made reference to children being planted in the house of the Lord. This can be done by parents uniting their efforts to bring up their children in the "fear and nurture of the Lord." Said she: "The great object of the Conference is to have a reformatory for youthful criminals. A white man of Fayetteville, Mr. Edgar Allen Poe, has given them fifty acres of land to start this movement. The speaker urged upon us to hold a high standard of morality for the boys and men as well as for the girls and women.

After the remarks of Miss Johnson, Rev. R. Shepard, Superintendent of the Grant Orphan Asylum, Oxford, N. C., was presented and spoke of the needs and claims of the Asylum. Brother Shepard, in his usual way, spoke very touchingly in behalf of the unfortunates who are destitute of parents. He began by saying he wanted to thank God for His care and mercy for the past and present. He also thanked the Association for what it has done and is doing for the great work. He called our attention to the fact that the Masonic Grand Lodge of North Carolina has helped them greatly in their dire distress. "It," he said, "has pledged to appropriate 10 per cent of its money to the Orphan Asylum." He also spoke of the improvements that are being made from time to time to grounds and buildings.

Rev. Shepard was followed by Brother A. B. Fleming, who urged us to stand firmly by the Asylum. He said there needs to be a brick building on the grounds.

After a collection for the Asylum we adjourned to meet to-morrow, Friday, at 9:30 a. m. Collection for Orphan Asylum, $12.46.

Benediction by Rev. Thos. Land.

This course of study was adopted unanimously by the Association, and the churches are requested to license no person who cannot pass a creditable examination on reading, writing, the fundamental principles of arithmetic, grammar and geography; and to ordain no person who cannot pass a satisfactory examination on the entire course.

We recommend the course of study as laid down by the Association as above mentioned.
